Sweet

He'd been relentless and yet Rachel resisted all his offers. Those were the times that he acknowledged him; most of the time he didn't, too busy with someone or something else.

He slid up beside him, fingers curling into the ends of his hair. "Hi."

Rachel grunted a response, indeterminate from such a low tone.

Rachel stomped away but not without shoving something in his face.

Baz unwrapped the gum to pop it into his grinning mouth.
